

Justin Ruby, P.E., LEED AP

Senior Project Engineer

Education

- B.S., Civil Engineering, Drexel University
- M.S., Civil Engineering, Villanova University

Professional Associations

- American Society of Civil Engineers
- Delaware Valley Association of Structural Engineers

Mr. Ruby has 6+ years of experience in structural engineering, land development and land surveying. His experience includes structural /civil design and analysis (retrofit and new work) for residential and commercial facilities. Mr. Ruby's structural work has been predominantly with pharmaceutical, commercial and manufacturing businesses. His experience has included architectural coordination, computer modeling, structural analysis and design for retrofit and new projects, multi-discipline coordination, scheduling, Basis of Design (BOD), reports, production ACAD, and staff supervision. He is experienced in the use of several different types of building materials including timber, cold-formed metal, masonry, reinforced concrete and structural steel. Mr. Ruby's land development and land surveying work has been with developers, builders and commercial businesses. This experience has included ALTA/ACSM Land Title Surveys, as-built plan preparation, minor subdivisions, major subdivisions, land development submission coordination and preparation, permit plan submission coordination and preparation, construction stake-out, legal description writing and field crew supervision.

Experience

Mr. Ruby has successfully completed projects for the following clients:

AAIPharma	Cordis
Adhesives Research	DPT Laboratories
Andryx	DuPont Pharmaceuticals
Aspire	Merck & Co.
Barr Laboratories	Monosol
BioMed Realty Trust	Patheon
Biowhittaker	RP Scherer
Bristol-Myers Squibb	Pfizer
Cardinal Health	Sanofi
Centocor	Wyeth